SECTION 1: GENERAL INFORMATION

A. INTRODUCTION

The annual Purdue Army Drill Meet will be held on Saturday, 11 February 2017, in the Armory building, located on the campus of Purdue University. The meet has a long and distinguished history, the 2017 Meet being the 44th anniversary. Every year some of the top Junior ROTC drill teams come to Purdue to compete at one of the few remaining drill meets sponsored by a major university's SROTC program. The competition will run from 0630 until approximately 1900 hours. This document maintains copyrighted materials in use for the National High School Drill Team Championships. Permission has been granted for this use by NHSOTC Event Manager, Sports Network International For event details, training materials or other drill information, please contact SNI Competition Director Justin Gates at: 800-327-9311 / drill@thenationals.net / <http://drill.thenationals.net>.

B. REGISTRATION and FEES

You should register early for the meet. While faxed registration forms and emailed forms will be accepted, they must be followed by a check for at least half the total amount of the entrance fees. Your slot cannot be guaranteed if the payment is not received by that time

1. You will need to pay 50% of registration fees NLT 09 December 2016.
2. You will need to pay 100% of registration fees NLT 19 January 2017.
3. At the time of registration, a team will be given the following items:
  1. Receipt for payment (including any refunds)
  2. Participant Roster (to be returned to the registration table with any changes)
  3. Final schedule
4. At least four teams must compete in an event for the event to be scheduled and held. Schools will be notified of any event cancellations and refunded appropriately.
5. IDR Knockout tickets will be sold the day of the meet at the registration table for both the armed and unarmed events. Cost of the tickets is $1.00 for each person per event.
6. A letter confirming your registration will be mailed to your unit upon our receipt of the registration form and the fees. We will also attempt to confirm your registration by telephone or email.
7. The drill schedule with your drill times, dressing rooms, and any changes will be emailed out NLT 1 week prior to the event.

2017 Purdue Army ROTC Drill Meet Manual

E. JUDGES

1. Non-Commissioned Officers (NCOs) or Drill Sergeants from active and reserve units judge all competition events.
2. Each team of judges has a designated head judge.
3. The head judge will be positioned for report in and out.
4. Only exhibition teams may reposition the head judge within the floor boundaries for reporting in and out.
5. Each event will be judged by the same judging team to ensure consistency and fairness.
6. Judges' decisions are final. Any appeals will be brought to the attention of the Drill Meet Officer (DMO) Cadet CSM or Drill Team Advisor (DTA) SMI
7. All judges will be addressed as either “Sergeant” or “Drill Sergeant”.

F. AWARDS AND TROPHIES

The awards ceremony will be the last event of the drill meet and will immediately follow the unarmed IDR competition.

All will be discussed with the SMI before announcing the awards. Any issues will be discussed with the JROTC Cadre prior to the award ceremony.

1. First, Second, Third place trophies are awarded for the following events:
  - a. Armed IDR Platoon
  - b. Armed IDR Squad
  - c. Armed Exhibition Platoon
  - d. Armed Exhibition Squad
  - e. Unarmed Exhibition Platoon
  - f. Unarmed Exhibition Squad
  - g. Armed Exhibition Duet
  - h. Exhibition Individual
  - i. Color Guard
2. First through third place trophies are awarded to cadets for each IDR Knockout competition. Fourth through tenth place will receive medals.
3. In the event of a tie in an event listed above, both teams will be rescheduled in the event, judged again, and a new overall score will be tabulated.
4. A trophy will be awarded to the Best Overall Inspection, in both Squad and Platoon IDR Events.
5. Commander's Trophy
  - a. A unit must participate in any combination of three events (listed in c, below) to be eligible for the Commander's trophy. These three events may all be the same. For example, if you have 3 separate platoons, all competing in the armed IDR Platoon event, and these are your three highest scores, they will count for award computation.

2017 Purdue Army ROTC Drill Meet Manual

b. The top three scores, by percentage, will be chosen to determine an overall average for the unit. The unit with the highest average will be awarded the Commander's trophy at the end of the competition.

c. In the event of a tie, the highest score in an event common to the units in the tie will be used to determine the winner. The events will be chosen in this rank order:

1. Armed IDR Platoon
2. Armed IDR Squad
3. Armed Exhibition Platoon
4. Armed Exhibition Squad
5. Unarmed Exhibition Platoon
6. Unarmed Exhibition Squad
7. Color Guard

d. If none of the top three scores of the tied units are common, then the highest score in the highest-ranking event (Armed IDR Platoon on down) will determine the winner.

G. SECURITY AND CONTROL

1. Security

a. Purdue Army ROTC places security as its highest priority and does not hesitate to implement corrective action.

b. Security personnel are posted around the dressing areas, the drill area, and wherever deemed necessary by the Drill Meet Staff.

c. Each unit will provide its own weapon security. No weapons will be left unattended.

2. Conduct and Control

The Purdue Army Drill Meet is a military event, run by soldiers of the United States Army and Senior Army ROTC cadets. You will be treated as military professionals by the Purdue staff and Purdue Army ROTC cadre. As such, all cadets and cadre are expected to carry themselves with the appropriate military discipline and courtesy when dealing with the drill meet staff and other schools

H. HOTEL RESERVATIONS

1. It's the responsibility of the attending unit to make hotel reservations. There are a number of excellent hotels in the area, though most are located on SR 26 right off of Interstate 65.

2. The following hotels are located within twenty (20) minutes of the Purdue Armory:

I. ARMORY VISIT

Schools are welcome to visit the Purdue University armory prior to the event in order to see the drill floor. All visits must be coordinated in advance with the Drill Meet Staff. You may take visitation arrangements by emailing CPT Brandon Lapehn at blapehn@purdue.edu

J. PARKING

Parking is limited on the campus of Purdue University. Parking will be available for busses directly behind the Armory on the north side parking lot (just off University Street). Privately Owned Vehicles (POV's) may be parked in the parking garage on the corner of 3rd and University Street.

K. CONCESSIONS

Concessions will be sold at the Purdue Armory on the day of the meet. There are also a number of eating establishments located in the West Lafayette area that are in walking distance from the Armory.

Types of Concessions that will be sold:

Hot dogs, Chips, Soda, Bottled Water, Gatorade, Candy, Coffee, Juice, and other assorted snacks.

1. Schools are welcome to bring food and beverages into their dressing rooms. Schools will be held responsible for cleaning up.

L. SPECTATORS

Spectators are welcome to attend the drill meet. There will be seating provided at the west side of the drill floor. Spectators are expected to treat the competitors with courtesy and respect. Please adhere to the following guidelines:

1. Please be silent while a team or individual is competing. They have practiced long and hard to achieve the degree of precision and difficulty.
2. Please make use of the trash receptacles located in the armory.
3. Parking on the Purdue Campus is limited, but usually not difficult to find on a Saturday. There should be adequate parking in the parking garage on the corner of 3rd and University Street.

M. DRESSING ROOMS

Dressing rooms will be made available for each team in a building separate from the armory. Walking distance is approximately 200 meters, so schools should plan for inclement weather.

1. Purdue AROTC Cadets will provide security of the dressing rooms, though it is highly encouraged that schools not leave any article unattended. Purdue Army ROTC and the Purdue Honor Guard will not be responsible for any missing, lost, or stolen items.
2. Each school will be assigned a dressing room for the duration of the drill meet.
3. Schools are responsible for the police of their rooms. All rooms will be left in the same condition found, and all trash will be removed from the room.
4. Schools must have their rooms inspected and cleared by a drill meet staff member prior to leaving the drill meet.
5. Vandalism, graffiti, and or damages brought to the attention of the drill meet staff will be reported to the attending school's administration.

SECTION II: TEAM SPECIFICATIONS

A. GENERAL

1. IDR Teams will be judged according to the Army Field Manual 3-21.5, Drill and Ceremonies, dated July 2003.
2. The following specifications dictate the number of personnel required for an event:
  - a. Platoon: Maximum is 32 personnel
Minimum is 13 personnel
  - b. Squad: Maximum is 11 personnel
Minimum is 9 personnel
3. All teams must enter and exit the drill floor only through the designated opening. No exceptions will be made.
4. No restriction is placed on the arming of the commander. (i.e. the commander may be armed with a saber, rifle, or unarmed).
5. No restrictions are placed on the team uniforms, but all team members must be in the same uniform. The only team member authorized to deviate uniforms is the team commander.
6. The M1, M14, M1903, M16, and their modifications (i.e. heavy or light weighted) are the only weapons used in the drill meet.*
7. Timing begins when the judging Drill Sergeant says "Take charge of your unit".
8. When reporting in/out the team commander should:
  - a. Address the head judge by his/her rank.
  - b. State their team's name.
  - c. State the area of competition.
  - d. Request permission to begin/end competition (example: "Drill Sergeant, the Wildcats from Northview High School request permission to begin (end) the Armed Platoon competition.").
10. Guide-on bearers may not be used during the competition.
11. All teams participating in IDR Platoon and Squad will take part and be scored in the inspection event of the Drill Meet.

*If a team wishes to use light weighted modifications of said weapons above in the Exhibition Events of drill meet, that team's score will be scaled in accordance with the difficulty scale of light-weighted weapons (Annex C & E)
