

Graduate Certificate in Biotechnology Quality and Regulatory Compliance Curriculum Overview

The Biotechnology Quality and Regulatory Compliance Graduate Certificate requires 12 credit hours. The program will consist of 4 courses. The majority of the courses at Purdue are three credit hours.

Required (Primary) – Biotechnology Quality and Regulatory Compliance (BQRC) core courses:

- ☐ TLI 52100 Drug Development
 - Credit Hours: 3
 - Offered: primarily spring or fall semester
 - Course Name on POS: Drug Development
- ☐ TLI 52200 Good Regulatory Practices
 - Credit Hours: 3
 - Offered: primarily spring or fall semester
 - Course Name on POS: Good Regulatory Pract
- ☐ TLI 52300 Quality Management, Audits & Inspections
 - Credit Hours: 3
 - Offered: primarily spring or fall semester
 - Course Name on POS: Qual Mgmt Audits
- ☐ TLI 52500 Molecular Basis in Manufacturing Pharmaceuticals
 - Credit Hours: 3
 - Offered: primarily offered summer semesters
 - Course Name on POS: Molec Basis Mfg Pharmaceutical

Tips:

- Purdue courses that are more than five years old may not be used.
- A Plan of Study is not required for graduate certificate.