PURDUE UNIVERSITY | Polytechnic Institute

"Every place I visited made me understand just how vast the world is, that there are a million little hidden places and spaces, cultures, languages and beautiful sights to be discovered. It has shown me that the world shrinks through the people I now can call friends and that I have a piece of familiarity half way across the world."

MCKENZIE LANDORF

Munich, Germany

Medellín, Colombia

Glendalough, Ireland

"This study abroad trip brought growth in my professional and personal life. I learned so much about myself by embracing a culture that was different than my own. I feel like I've gained a family over in Ireland and could return to them at any point of my life."
