

STUDY ABROAD ON SAFE AND SUSTAINABLE DATA CENTERS IN ITALY

DON'T MISS THIS 2027 SPRING BREAK STUDY ABROAD!

You will spend one week in the Lombardy Region of northern Italy, experiencing stunning landscapes, iconic art and architecture, legendary fashion houses like Armani and Prada, and world-class cuisine in Milan, Como, Pravia and Varese.

Course Credits: Students will earn 2 credits (TECH 48155)

Housing: hotel located in the city center of Varese within walking distance to the Varese train station

Italian Host: Dr. Elisabetta Sieni, professor of electrical engineering at the University of Insubria, Varese, Italy

Purdue Host: Dr. John W. Sheffield

Sightseeing: Milan Cathedral & Castle, 3 Museums, hike to Sacro Monte and Lake Como, riding trains, trams and buses

Technical Tours: Noovle Data Center, Bticino S.p.A., Lu-Ve S.p.A, and the University of Insubria and an international conference

For Information: email Dr. Sheffield jsheffie@purdue.edu